

Renewing Your Status to Become a Certified ServSafe Instructor (Food Safety)

Take the ServSafe Food Protection Manager Certification Examination Instructor Version

- You need a passing score of 75% or better within the past 5 years on the ServSafe Food Protection Manager Certification Examination Instructor Version.*
- To take the Course and Exam:
 - Purchase the ServSafe Food Safety Online Course and utilize an Online Proctor.
 - Contact an approved ServSafe Food Safety Instructor through the "Find a Class" portion of www.ServSafe.com or contact your state restaurant association.

* The Instructor version is a separate form of the normal ServSafe Food Protection Manager Certification Examination. This Exam was created to ensure instructors do not view the same Exam questions as examinees. If you have not taken the Instructor Version of the Exam, a 90 day waiting period (from your Exam date) will apply before you will be authorized to provide course instruction. (Example: If you took the normal ServSafe Exam on 01-15-2008, you can teach your first course after 04-14-2008.)
